

ANITA PAIGE

EDGE Keynote Speaker and Thought Leader

Anita Paige is Senior Vice President at EDGE. Anita is an accomplished business woman, bringing over 23 years of dynamic experience driving results through people. Her experience as a business owner is a tremendous asset and provides her with great insight into company and employee developmental needs. It also gives her the ability to be intentional about helping her clients achieve a desired outcome and identify bottom line impact as a direct result.

Anita specializes in performance development, and her desire to reach people at every level has driven her to become certified in all of the EDGE Learning Institute programs. She has experience facilitating Increasing Human Effectiveness, Unlocking Your Potential and RESPECT: The Source of Our Strength®. Being fluent in all of these programs allows her to support business owners, executive level officers, managers, employees and youth.

For the past four years, Anita has followed her passion of impacting cultures by helping organizations leverage diversity, inclusion and engagement through Respect®. Her expertise as a business woman, coupled with her experience at EDGE, allows her to create a business case for Respect® at every level of the organization.

Anita is highly sought after as a keynote presenter in the area of leadership and she utilizes the Extraordinary Leadership Series she co-authored with her colleagues at Edge. Her style and ability allow her to inform and challenge leaders at every level to improve their effectiveness and achieve results. Her unique ability to create and customize each program allows her to meet the needs of a very diverse client base which includes organizations in both the private and public sectors.

Anita continues to maintain ownership and leadership in her privately owned company. Prior to joining the EDGE leadership team and driving results through her company, Anita gained corporate experience at the Smith Barney Company where she worked for 11 years.

Anita is an accomplished facilitator, keynote speaker, consultant, trainer, and leadership coach. She has traveled throughout the United States conducting training seminars, and speaking at conferences and workshops. She has been married to her husband, Tim, for 17 years, has four children and resides in Tacoma, Washington.

About EDGE

EDGE Learning Institute, with its consulting arm, EDGE Global Advisors, is a business management and human resource consulting firm with corporate headquarters in Tacoma, Washington and offices across North America. Over the past 37 years, EDGE has partnered with organizations and leaders around the globe to build business cultures that engage people and achieve breakthrough results.

EDGE's mission is to equip and build capacity through Talent Management-focused consulting services that provide relevant and timely resources for emerging companies. EDGE's commitment to excellence supports a focused and intentional investment in the people and systems of these organizations which ultimately leads to community impact and social change.

